

Free Drive-thru and Walk-Up COVID-19 Testing

Delaware County will offer free drive-thru and walk-up COVID-19 testing for residents from noon to 5:30 p.m. on Wednesday, Sept. 16 and from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Thursday, Sept. 17 at the Philadelphia Sikh Society, 6706 Garden Court Road, Millbourne. Testing will be conducted by trained medical staff utilizing a nasal swab test kit.

The COVID-19 testing is open to all residents 12 and older and individuals who work in Delaware County who have COVID-19 symptoms, who have had a known exposure to someone with COVID-19 or are critical/ essential workers. Critical and essential workers -- including first responders, healthcare system employees, grocery workers and those at higher risk, including residents over 65 and those with pre-existing health conditions -- will be given priority.

Testing is available for both insured and uninsured individuals. There are no out-of-pocket expenses or co-pays for those with health insurance. Individuals are asked to bring their insurance card to the testing site. A prescription from a doctor is not required. Upon arrival, individuals will need to complete a registration form and a consent form. Masks or face coverings are required at the test site.

Test results typically take up to five to seven business days and will be sent by mail. Test results can also be sent through an online portal hosted by HNL Lab Medicine. Individuals who elect to provide an email address will be able to create an online account on the MyHNLAccess portal at myhnlaccess.force.com/Patients/hnlloginpage where they can access their results. Individuals who test positive will also receive a call from the Chester County Health Department.

Individuals are asked to pre-register online at www.chesco.org/4562/Delco-Testing or by calling 610-891-6129. Walk-up testing will also be available. In the event of inclement weather, testing may be canceled.

Additional public COVID-19 testing sites in Delaware County will be announced in the coming weeks.
